

Arsenal Workers Win Awards for Their Suggestions

Two residents of Joliet, both employees of the Joliet Arsenal, received welcome Christmas presents yesterday, when they received cash awards at the annual Arsenal Christmas party.

For a suggestion which it is estimated saved the government $7,075 in three months, LeRoy J. Wilhelmi, 302 First avenue, was awarded a check for $275. Ritchie L. Longoria, 415 Grover street, was given $150 for a similar suggestion.

Others receiving cash awards were: Alfred F. Dietz, Chicago; John J. Zerboglio, Coal City, and Heleb Havel, Wilmington.
